

Digital media (and beyond) in the daily life of politics

FINAL WORKSHOP OF THE RESEARCH PROJECT PICME Political Participation in Complex Media Environments

21 and 22 March, 2019
Scuola Normale Superiore
Palazzo Strozzi, Florence

DAY 1

11:30 – 12:30

Registration at Palazzo Strozzi

(Piazza degli Strozzi, Scuola Normale Superiore, 5th floor)

12:30 – 14:00

Lunch

(Odeon Bistrò, Piazza degli Strozzi 8)

14:00 – 15:30

SESSION 1. PICME project: theories, methods and main findings

- A practice approach to understand what activists, journalists and politicians do with digital media
Alice Mattoni (PICME Principal Investigator, Scuola Normale Superiore)

- How to construct data to study practices? The development of the media practices maps tool
Emiliano Trerè (PICME researcher, Cardiff University)

- Four practices: visibility, information, organization and connection
Diego Ceccobelli (PICME postdoctoral researcher, Scuola Normale Superiore)

- What have we learned so far? Which are the limits of our research?
Alice Mattoni (PICME Principal Investigator, Scuola Normale Superiore)

15:30 – 16:00

Coffee break

16:00 – 17:30

KEYNOTE SESSION

- Reflections on organizational practices
Anastasia Kavada (University of Westminster)
- Reflections on visibility practices
Christoph Raetzsch (Weizenbaum Institute for the Networked Society)

20:00

Dinner

(Lo Stracotto, Piazza di Madonna degli Aldobrandini 17)

DAY 2

10:30 – 12:00

SESSION 3. Organizational practices: some empirical examples from Italy, Spain and Greece

- Chair: Anastasia Kavada (University of Westminster)
- Alice Mattoni (highlights from the paper on organizational practices)
- Daniele De Bernardin (Openpolis, Italy)
- Xavier Artigas (Metromuster, Spain)
- Kostas Zafeiropoulos (Efsyn, Greece)

12:00 – 14:00

Lunch

(Odeon Bistrò, Piazza degli Strozzi 8)

14:00 – 15:30

SESSION 4. Visibility practices: some empirical examples from Italy, Spain and Greece

- Chair: Christoph Raetzsch (Weizenbaum Institute for the Networked Society)
- Diego Ceccobelli (highlights from the paper on visibility practices)
- Priscilla Robledo (Riparte il Futuro, Italy)
- Patricia Suárez (Asufin, Spain)
- Kristina Tremonti (Edosa Fakelaki / I Paid a Bribe, Greece)

15:30 – 16:00

COFFEE BREAK WITH FINAL SESSION. Paths for future research and some final remarks

MINISTERO DELL'ISTRUZIONE,
DELL'UNIVERSITÀ E DELLA RICERCA

Il convegno è finanziato con fondi MIUR SIR 2014 - Progetto MIUR SIR 2014 "Political participation in Complex Media Environments: A Multi-level and Multi-method Approach (cod. RBSI14GUJE)."CUP E52115000500001